

BURNOUT IN OPERATIONS

THE HARD
WEEKS
NEVER BURNED ME OUT.

SWIPE →

IT WAS THE SAME FAULT, AGAIN

The fourth arrival of one incident we had already solved.

MIGRATIONS WERE NEVER THE PROBLEM

A go-live has an end date. You can see the far side.

THE WORKAROUND BECAME FURNITURE

Someone wrote it once, it went into a runbook, and it stayed.

EVERY FEW WEEKS IT CAME BACK

Someone else lost an evening applying it again.

NOBODY LOGGED IT AS A PROBLEM

It was just Tuesday.

WHAT A REPEAT FAULT COSTS

It costs people the belief that fixing things works.

SO I STOPPED WRITING WORKAROUNDS

I closed each fault at its source and deleted the runbook entry.
